Snow Sport Specifics in Brief!!

Everything about Chamonix is impressive. In the shadow of Mont Blanc (4,810m), the highest mountain in the Alps, the deep Chamonix valley has more skiable slopes than seems possible and something for all abilities, though adventurous skiers and boarders have most to gain from a visit including ski runs with a vertical elevation of more than 2,000m and the "Vallée Blanche", the most famous off-piste run in the world. A magnet to skiers, mountaineers and all extreme sports devotees, the thriving town of Chamonix is busy all year round and only one hour (103km) from Geneva airport, making it one of Europe's most popular destinations for weekend and short break skiing.

Quick Facts...

- Lift capacity approx. 52,660 per hour, including 4 cable cars, 3 gondolas, 34 chair lifts, and 10 surface lifts
- Chamonix elevation - 3,266 feet
- Max vertical drop reached by lifts – 9,774 feet
- Max skiable vertical drop 9,240 feet
- Highest lift 12,672 feet above sea level
- 168 kilometers prepared pistes
 - Green (very easy) – 8
 - Blue (easy) – 35
 - Red (medium) – 31
 - Black (difficult) - 15
- 15,000 acres skiable terrain
- Plus the Mont Blanc glacier
- PLUS Off Piste!

Pricing is tentatively only $2,299 for all this! Details and prices on side trips and the extensions to the Nice/Cote de Azur and to Morzine will be available at the next meeting!

CHAMONIX/MONT BLANC

"Best of the Alps"

March 7 - 15, 2014

Chamonix/Mont-Blanc or, more commonly known as Chamonix, is a commune in the Rhône-Alpes region in south-eastern France. It was the site of the first Winter Olympics in 1924.

Situated near the massive peaks of the Aiguilles Rouges and most notably the Aiguille du Midi, Chamonix is one of the oldest ski resorts in France and is known as the "gateway to the European Cascades". The north side of the summit of Mont Blanc, and therefore the summit itself, are part of the village of Chamonix. To the south side, the situation is different depending on the country. Italy considers that the border passes through the top. France considers that the boundary runs along the rocky Tournette under the summit cap, placing it entirely in French territory. The south side was in France, assigned to the commune of Saint-Gervais-les-Bains sharing the summit with its neighbor Chamonix. It is this situation "for France", which is found on the French IGN maps. The Chamonix commune is well known and loved by skiers and mountain enthusiasts of all types, and via the cable car lift to the Aiguille du Midi it is possible to access the world famous off-piste ski run of the Vallée Blanche.

What's Included ...

- Airfare Lexington – Geneva – Lexington
- Ground transportation Geneva – Chamonix - Geneva with English- speaking guide on the coach
- Seven nights at the Hotel Alpina
- Breakfast buffet and dinner daily (Dine Around plan for dinners)

- Winter hiking

It's pure adrenaline! Sky diving, heli-skiing, paragliding, wide slopes and toboggan runs – there's no limit to the range of winter sports on offer in the Chamonix holiday region.

Chamonix's offer of winter sports and adventure is as good as the summer one! Rock around a snowpark, curve and carve your way across ample ski slopes, sledge down a toboggan run or two, or experience the free-fall sensation of paragliding. Ice skating, winter hiking, and snow-board riding make for somewhat quieter winter days that are just as thrilling.

Non-skier Activities...

Ski Morzine: March 15-22

Morzine is one of 14 resorts in the massive Portes du Soleil ski area, which spans the Franco-Swiss border. With 52 hotels and 41 bars and restaurants, it's a concentration of ski holiday facilities, but still manages to pull off that authentic mountain village feel. With 212 interconnected lifts servicing a mind-boggling 650kms of runs sprawling across 12 areas, Morzine is a fine destination for skiers and boarders of all levels. There are 273 marked ski runs as well as 216 km of cross-country trails. It's also a good place from which to explore the Porte du Soleil's many off piste options if you're feeling adventurous. Lifts often lead directly up to these areas, which mean less hiking and more skiing.

Package includes:

- Ground transportation Chamonix - Morzine- Geneva
- Seven nights accommodation at the Club Hotel Le Cret
- Breakfast buffet and dinner daily
- Hospitality desk at hotel
- Local taxes, luggage handling, and tips
- Lift tickets and ski/board rentals extra

FROM THE TRIP LEADER

Pricing has not been finalized, but will be approximately $1049. (Note: The Morzine extension is only available in conjunction with the Chamonix trip.

Nice Cote D'Azur: March 2 - 8

The deep blue waters of the Cote d'Azur are the dramatic backdrop for elegant Nice. Breathe in the fresh Mediterranean air as you stroll the waterfront promenade, or get an eagle eye of the whole city from atop Castle Hill. The pedestrians-only Place Rossetti is the heart of the city, with a grand fountain, vibrant buildings, and the beautiful Sainte-Réparate cathedral giving it a provincial French feel. With its unusual mix of real-city grit, old-world opulence, year-round sunshine and exceptional location, Nice's appeal is universal. Everyone from backpackers to romance-seeking couples and families will love sitting at a cafe on cours Saleya in Vieux Nice or a bench on the legendary Promenade des Anglais for an epic sunset. Eating options are some of the best you'll find in France, the nightlife is buzzing and the art scene thriving. You could happily spend a week here and still be hungry for more.

Our trip will include:

- Five nights lodging in the four-star Grand Hotel Aston
- Breakfast daily
- Full day tour of Nice, Eze Village, and Monaco
- Full day tour to Antibes, Biot, and St. Paul
- Half day tour to Grasse and

Cannes

- Holiday escort throughout the trip
- Motorcoach transfer from Nice to Chamonix with English speaking guide
- Free Wi-Fi at the hotel
- Local taxes, guide gratuities, luggage handling at hotels

Pricing has not been finalized, and will depend on the total number of OVSC participants, the Euro-dollar exchange rate - at the time of ticketing, and changes in fuel surcharges. Anticipate a price ranging around $1,179, but could be more if lower than anticipated OVSC - wide count - or lower if there is a larger group.

OVSC (but not LSSC) offers Mt. Bachelor

Mt. Bachelor, Oregon
March 1-8, 2014

The Dayton Ski Club has extended an invitation to interested LSSC skiers and boarders to join them as they head to Mt. Bachelor for spring skiing in Bend, Oregon. Please note this conflicts with the LSSC European trip but is being advertised as a courtesy to DSC.
