RACING

Want to add more excitement to your upcoming ski season? We have just the thing for you. Join fellow skiers/boarders as they compete with one another racing down the slopes of local ski resorts. Racing is for all ages and all skill levels. Racing can also help improve your skiing/boarder skills and techniques. Those new to racing are always welcome.

The Lexington Ski and Sports Club (LSSC) races in the Ohio Valley Ski Conference (OVSC). All club members are eligible to participate in the races and represent the LSSC. If you enjoy skiing, you most likely will enjoy racing. Many club members race or participate in NASTAR events when on western trips. We have some elite racers in the LSSC and they are anxious to help you get your start in racing or advance your current racing skills.

Below you will find the 2019 OVSC Racing Schedule and instructions on How do I Register to Race for the LSSC?. You do not have to participate in all of the races. Get your racing groove on this year by participating in one or two races. There are multiple age groups so you don't have to worry about being left in the powder by a young whippersnapper. To participate in any of our races, you must register by Sunday, Dec 16th.

If you want more information, please contact Dianna (Lady Di) Miller at racing@lexskisports.org or call/text her at 1-859-749-2651. Dianna will also be at our Dec 4th meetings to answer any questions you have about our racing program

MUST REGISTER BY DECEMBER 16TH

ABOUT VAL DI FASSA

The enchanting world of the Dolomites - ancient legends and myths characterise the famous pale mountains. Already some 40 million years ago those mountains were formed, which got their name from a limestone rock called dolomite.

And in between those mighty pale mountains lies the Fassa Valley, with a rich number of hiking trails taking you right to the heart of the beautiful natural scenery called Dolomites. The valley is characterised by the Avisio river and thanks to such famous mountains as the Sella Group or legendary Marmolada it is one of the most renowned Alpine valleys. Val di Fassa is by the way the only Trentino valley where the Ladin language is still spoken.

Winter turns Val di Fassa into a true skiing paradise. The ski areas of the valley are all part of the Dolomiti Superski area, the biggest association of ski areas all over the world. The lifts and gondolas are running even in summer which might come quite handy when embarking on long and challenging hikes across the mountains. Steeped in tradition, the valleys boast a very special flair. Enjoy true hospitality and get to know almost forgotten traditions and cultures...

THE SKI AREAS

9 ski areas - Marmolada/Pian dei Fiacconi, Alba/Ciampac; Canazei/Belvedere/Passo Pordoi; Campitello/Col Rodella/Passo Sella, Pozza di Fassa/Buffaure, Vigo di Fassa/Ciampedie, Passo Carezza, Moena/Lusia/Bellamonte, Passo San Pellegrino/Col Margherita/Falcade - 210 kilometres of pistes, 83 operating lifts.

Technical snow making guarantees more than 95% slope covering.

Links to the neighbouring ski areas, breath-taking views and a wide choice of refuges and places of refreshment for a 360° mountain experience.

BESIDES SKIING:

Winter walks: many are the paths that, directly from every village of the valley, lead to peaceful sites that can be easily reached by walking, also during the winter season. All these excursions are described in our guide of low-level walks.

Snowshoe guided excursions: snowshoe walking, in woods and along mountain trails, guided by experts. Aimed at offering an alternative to ski, these excursions can be practised easily also by beginners.

Culture: The Ladin Museum offers, in the winter season as well, many opportunities to get in touch with the Ladin cultural heritage and traditions.
