Executive VP Report

The 2012-13 ski season is now history for most of us (but maybe someone is going out to ski A-Basin in May?). So it is time to start thinking about next year's trips. The club has committed to going on the OVSC trip to Telluride, Colorado, which will be held January 18-25, 2014. Final lodging and cost details have not been established at this time. Several other destinations are being considered. Possible times include Christmas/New Years week, late February, or March. If you have preferences for destinations or dates, please contact me at hglauert@uky.edu or contact any board member. There also will be an OVSC European trip in 2014, but the destination and dates have not been finalized.

Get and stay connected with other LSSC members online. Between the LSSC website (www.lexski sports.org), Meetup, and Facebook there are plenty of opportunities so make sure you take advantage of these great tools. You can post to Facebook yourself or send information and pictures to Terry Esrael, LSSC Webmaster, at hwy66kicks@insightbb.com
